Rules and Conditions

How to play?

- Log on with your chosen password.
- During the campaign period you can collect 20 different aviation cards: five golden cards and 15 normal aviation cards.
- Each collectible card contains a code in the top, right-hand corner. Enter this code on the web site and you will get a question.
- Each new card triggers a new question.
- Each question has four answer options. Choose the correct answer.
- You get two chances to answer each question. If your first answer is correct, you get 100 points. If your second answer is correct, you get 50 points. If your answer is incorrect after two tries, you get no points.
- After answering the question, the card on your digital poster will light up and show how many points you have scored for this question.
- For each golden question, you can earn 200 points, for each normal question you can earn 100 points.
- Collect all codes by getting all 20 aviation cards.
- You can also start a internal competition with your colleagues. The person who registers the competition on the Master of Aviation website automatically becomes the competition coordinator. You can then invite colleagues to join the competition by going to the 'invite more colleagues' button. These colleagues receive an email with a link to the online registration form. After registration, they can score points by answering the same questions you have. On your competition homepage, you can see which of the invitees have actually joined your internal competition.
